Traditionally the New Year will start in Saarbrücken where this year we proudly announce the premiere of „Die Geister, die mich riefen“ - a documentary from Diana Nücke.

The film is about a unique character Engin, a German of Turkish origin, who hasn't been "home" to Turkey for more than 20 years. Legal matters cause him to take the long tedious journey back by car accompanied by director Diana. Revealing what awaits them makes for suspenseful eye awakening viewing.

Check it out, in January at the Max-Ophüls Festival in Saarbrücken:

Screening Dates:

Thursday 26th of January / 7.45 pm / CineStar 8

Friday 27th of January / 5.30 pm / CineStar 2

Saturday 28th of January / 12.30 pm / CineStar 8

Sunday 29th of January / 11.15 pm / CineStar 5

For those of you who are lucky enough to be in in Saarbrücken and haven't yet seen it, Nelly's Adventure will also be available for viewing!!

Saturday, 28th of January / 3pm.

If you miss Saarbrücken, you may head to Seattle or Bangladesh.

Nelly's Adventure is still in popular demand and will be doing the rounds for quite some time yet. Which of course makes us very happy indeed! But for all those who just prefer to watch a good movie in the comfort of their own home, you may pre-order Nelly's Adventure on DVD/ Blu Ray – a perfect Easter gift, don't you think.

So dear friends, we would like to take this opportunity to send out our very best wishes to you and yours and hope you get to put your feet up and watch a good movie (see above!!) during the holiday season.

Merry Christmas and a very happy New Year from all of us at INDI FILM.
